ZOE LACCHEI

Italy www.zoelacchei.com

Zoe Lacchei grew up in a small town near Rome.

She focused on the subjects she loved the most, such as human anatomy and Japanese culture with its great sense for the art of image, in a traditional and at the same time modern way, given by Manga, Anime and videogames. Eclectic, passionate, Zoe Lacchei has published several works and has taken part to many exhibitions.

Her unmistakable style is a fusion of several traditional techniques and materials.

Her work on Marilyn Manson's visual evolution has crucially marked her artistic career, on a graphic level but also in terms of visibility.

In 2004 she realized the painting for the Marilyn Manson's Gold Disc (Golden Age of the Grotesque) and her professional agreement with Marilyn Manson has been going on.

Since 2007 she has been the owner of a studio-gallery in Rome.
